MASTERS IN LIBRARY SCIENCE SCHOLARSHIP

The goal of the Friends of the Secaucus Public Library Scholarship is to encourage and aid Secaucus residents in their pursuit of a Masters in Library Science. Applicants must currently reside in Secaucus, and be residents for at least one full year. They must be accepted into or enrolled in an ALA-accredited masters program for library science.

To apply, the following documents must be submitted to the Friends of the Library at the main library building by mail, in person or via email to secaucuslibraryfriends@gmail.com by April 3rd, 2023:

- Application Questionnaire (included below)
- Proof of acceptance into or current enrollment in a masters program in an accredited college for library science
- Presentation of undergraduate transcript (or most recent graduate transcript)
- Statement of interest to pursue this degree (500 word maximum)
- Two letters of recommendation
